

ABOUT THE BOOK

The question readers of the first four volumes of Hijacked! might be asking is this. Why was it necessary to write volume 5, The Demonic, when the subject matter appears to be thoroughly explored in the first four volumes? Well, in volume 4, The Recovery, I carefully delineated that a successful recovery from the nightmare induced by the Hijack of Dr. King's dream required both a nationwide revival and a reformation of the government and other essential institutions of our society. I specifically stated, for example, that a thorough reformation of the American education system was desperately needed at all levels, kindergarten through college.

However, as time passed, it was realized that the exploration of the demonic aspect of the hijack and the recovery from the nightmare was not sufficient, not specific, detailed, or comprehensive enough in volume 4, The Recovery. To process the rapidly increasing things that are currently overwhelming our society, which are making America a very scary and almost unrecognizable place to live, something much more specific or much more comprehensive is needed. What is needed is a deeper spiritual exploration of the demonic powers enforcing the hijack of Dr. King's dream. Such dark powers are a great hindrance to the recovery dynamics needed for a successful nationwide revival and reformation or to make Dr. King's dream and the American Dream a reality.

More specifically, a greater understanding of the cold-hearted ruthlessness of the hijack requires a greater understanding of its demonic nature and the prevailing insanity it has produced throughout America. This is important because the demonic influences in America are far more widespread than recognized and acknowledged by most of "We the People." Such a lack of recognition and acknowledgement contributed greatly to the metastization of the demonic influences in America. The reason why this is indisputably true is because denial is demonic darkness. Jesus expressed the dire need of thoroughly naming and proclaiming (with specificity) the works of demonic forces in our society—and giving Satan credit for such works—when He said with great boldness, "And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make [shall set] you free" (John 8:32).

In other words, the fact that the demonic influences of the hijack have metastasized like a cancer means that the intricacies of the metastization and the recovery from it must be explored in great detail and proclaimed nationwide with specificity. Evidence of the fact that a majority of Americans are being taught how to live by demons (and don't even know it); the metastization of demonic influences; and the need of an effective spiritual warfare prayer strategy that possesses the specificity required to tear down the demonic strongholds so that America can have a nationwide revival and reformation of the government and other essential institutions of our society is the following.

Number 1: The relentless lying now occurring in America by our civil leaders and others to control the people is indeed undeniable evidence that demonic attacks against our nation exist.

And it is occurring on a moment by moment basis throughout the day. Number 2: There is a relentless pursuit by numerous Americans from all economic, educational, professional, racial, and social segments of society to exalt arguments, ideologies, social theories, or worldviews above the knowledge and plans of God. Such worldviews which are relentlessly being exalted above the knowledge, plans, and wisdom of God are critical race theory; social justice; transgenderism; the open border policy; climate control; an obsession with renewing the JCPOA Iran nuclear argument, and the love affair of Blacks, Jews, and others with the people who clearly hate them. All of these things are a very clear demonstration that most Americans have rejected the God-given dream goals and dream methods of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and the American dream and are instead being taught how to live by demons.

You see, if Dr. King's dream and the American Dream becomes a reality in the lives of African-Americans in particular or everybody in America, then leftists, progressive liberals would not have anybody to control and maintain their severely flawed ideological pursuits and the political advantage they now possess. There would not be anyone for them to deceive and manipulate with their demonically flawed ideological arguments to stay in power.

Therefore, the conclusion is indeed that America is in need of a great spiritual scrubbing away of demons, demonic influences, or arguments that have been raised above the knowledge, plans, and wisdom of God before the gospel can be effectively received to bring about a nationwide revival and reformation of the government and other institutes of our society such as the public school system and our college and universities. This is what must be done to remove the "madness, mental blindness, and confusion of heart and mind"(Deut. 28:28) or the "reprobate mind"(Rom. 1:28) or the insanity that God afflicted the people with so they can receive the truth of the proclamation of the gospel. Volume 5, The Demonic explores the various aspects of this insanity and delineates how to scrub it off.
